

Centre for Anabaptist Studies

Bristol Baptist College MA in Theology, Ministry and Mission

Flexible programme
1 year full-time, 2-4 years part-time
Distance learning options
Preparation for research

Our MA programme gives you the opportunity to build on your previous study in Theology. You can follow a track which specialises in Anabaptist Studies, or combine Anabaptist modules with other areas of interest.

A growing number of our modules are offered though distance learning, with structured online materials and support from a tutor. Many modules are offered during block weeks to enable those living at a distance from Bristol to travel here for a few days of concentrated study.

Topics include:

Anabaptist Origins and Distinctives*

Anabaptist Ethics and Hermeneutics*

Anabaptist Ecclesiology and Missiology*

Study of a Key Anabaptist Text

Study of a Key Anabaptist Figure

Research and Reflection: Resources and Methods

Independent Learning Project

Dissertation

* Available by distance learning from 2015-16

Fees (2014-15) Full time: £5080

Part-time: £500 per 20 credits + annual validation fee

At least 40 credits must be taken each year

Non-award students: £200 per module

Taster module (including assignment): £250

Membership of the College Library and use of the College online Virtual Learning Environment is available to all students registering on our awards. Our MA programme is taught in partnership with Trinity College, Bristol.

For an informal conversation about study contact Stuart Murray Williams, Centre Director anabaptist@bristol-baptist.ac.uk