

Church and Peace

"And they shall live secure" (Micah 5,4)

Theological reflection and practical action

The church as an agent for peace in an increasingly insecure world

This day of reflection and discussion will look at what makes us secure, and what makes us insecure, and how our faith fits into this. We will look at how the churches can play a prophetic role in building true security in our region today.

Keynote speaker: Simon Barrow
(director of Ekklesia : www.ekklesia.co.uk)

Workshop sessions and an afternoon panel discussion will give opportunities to re-imagine the face of Church and Peace in Britain and Ireland, to see what the network's unique contribution can be in the future and how we can strengthen the work already being done.

Date: Saturday 29th October, 10.30 - 16.00

Venue: Quaker Meeting House, 40 Bull St, Birmingham B4 6AF

The event is free of charge. A soup and sandwich lunch can be booked at a cost of £6.00.

Registration and further information

Contact Barbara Forbes - forbesbarbarae@yahoo.co.uk

To register, please send us your name, contact details and the name of your church/meeting/organisation, as applicable. Individual participants are also welcome.

Thanks for letting us know if you'd like to book the lunch, and if you're a vegetarian or have a special diet.

Please register by 20 October

Church and Peace brings together Christian communities, congregations, study centres, peace organisations, and individuals across Europe who are committed to becoming a peace church. Its members seek to live out the Gospel call to nonviolence through shared worship, theological reflection, and practical action for justice, peace and the integrity of creation.